FOR SAILING ENTHUSIASTS

THE BREAKERS, BRIGHTLINE & BOOKS

SEA CLOUD SPIRIT debuts Miami to The Bahamas roundtrip itinerary with an exclusive pre-sail overnight stay at The Breakers Palm Beach and first-class travel aboard Brightline's high-speed passenger train.

This captivating excursion begins on the island of Palm Beach, Florida at The Breakers, a luxurious oceanfront resort that embodies seaside splendor rich in history and architectural magnificence. Founded in 1896 by Henry M. Flagler, this iconic, Italian Renaissance-inspired property spans 140 acres and features meticulously landscaped grounds, elegant accommodations, and a bounty of world-class amenities, from dining and recreation to exceptional shopping, all on site.

The journey continues the following day aboard Brightline, a 21st-century take on Flagler's original East Coast Railway. Premier train service seamlessly connects travelers to top destinations and major events between Central and South Florida, serving Miami, Aventura, Fort Lauderdale, Boca Raton, West Palm Beach, and Orlando. Brightline's elevated offerings include private lounge access, complimentary food and drinks, and so much more.

Guest will then embark SEA CLOUD SPIRIT in PortMiami for a memorable, luxury sailing excursion, featuring esteemed historian and special guest lecturer Les Standiford, who will delve into the captivating narratives of Palm Beach's Gilded Age. The New York Times bestselling author will regale passengers with stories from his prolific body of works, The Last Train to Paradise, a definitive history of Henry Flagler and the Florida East Coast Railway, and Palm Beach, Mar-a-Lago, and the Rise of America's Xanadu, which chronicles accounts from original SEA CLOUD owners E.F. Hutton and Marjorie Merriweather Post. Learn more about The Breakers, Henry Flagler, and Marjorie Merriweather Post, staples in the notable social scene that contributed to the development and prestige of Palm Beach as a renowned destination.

Stephen Weston

Stephen Weston has guided ecotourism experiences throughout the globe for more than 15 years. He focuses on marine ecology and its biodiversity, as well as the intricate interactions among marine organisms of the Caribbean, Eastern Pacific and South Pacific Oceans. Stephen has brought international awareness to these fragile realms of tropical paradise with his photography and documentaries featured on the BBC and National Geographic. As a naturalist, he specializes in Tropical Ecology and Natural History interpretation. He has developed a profound passion for sharks and is more than eager to share his passion in educational and entertaining talks with you.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another expert will join this sailing instead.

INSIDER TIP FOR Sailing ENTHUSIASTS

DISCOVER THE BAHAMAS' MOST EXCLUSIVE ISLANDS AND THEIR BRIGHTLY COLORED REEFS

Bon Voyage at Sunset Toast Miami farewell as you glide away from the glowing skyline with glasses of champagne.

Bahamas' Best Snorkeling Spots Behold a rainbow of underwater color at secluded coral gardens.

Insider Tip Experience the exclusivity of the Exumas' untouched beaches, shallow waters, and its famous swimming pigs.

Lively and a Little Bit Funky Take a walk on the quirky side through Hemingway's Key West.

Secret tip: Eleuthera

Eleuthera lies in distinctive turquoise waters with the Atlantic Ocean on one side and the Caribbean Sea on the other. Despite her slender proportions, the island is home to an incredible breadth of nature, and its beaches are lined with shell-scattered sandbanks.

Hidden gem: Exumas

Secluded bays, picturesque anchorages, and divine snorkeling spots around protected reefs – the Exumas should be a tourist hub, but the archipelago has remained exclusive. Most of the paradise islands are uninhabited and can only be reached by yacht.
