WORTH KNOWING

Cozumel is more than beaches and breezes — it's a living layer cake of ancient culture, Spanish influence, and vibrant island life. While the Riviera Maya buzzes just across the water, Cozumel moves to its own rhythm. The overnight stay allows you to linger longer: perhaps diving into the Mesoamerican Reef by day, then sampling Yucatecan cuisine and catching a twilight breeze along the malecón. Just inland, sacred cenotes and Maya ruins hint at stories far older than the modern resort scene.
